Based on a true story of a 1970's radical, antiwar group which began as a peaceful protest but turned into a violent event. Faced with a crime/prison, the group went into hiding (Weather Underground) for 30 years until a brash journalist/reporter seeking a sensational, newsworthy story suspects a lawyer as one of the decades-old FBI most wanted cases. He begins to seek to expose every member, starting with Robert Redford (now a lawyer) and bring them to justice.
